GOOD WORK BY THE POLICE

Edward Camp Arrested After Long Evading the Authorities-Fisher-Gould Suit.

PETERSBURG, VA., July 11.—The Democracy of Petersburg are again cor-Mislly united in harmonious support of the St. Louis ticket and platform, and the course of our distinguished senators and other representatives in the National Convention receives universal approval.

Hon. L. D. Yarrell, who is registered at The Chesterfield, expresses himself as gressional candidacy. His advocacy of a protective policy for local products is sining for him many friends among the collacco, peanut and lumber men of the district.

Capiain Ragiand and his capable assistants, of the Petersburg police force, have finished another most successful piece of detective work in the arrest of the negro. Edward Camp, who on April Ilth, it was alleged, stole a watch from another negro, William Thomas, at the saloon of Willis Gilliam, on Old Street. Camp has heretofore cluded capture, but was finally run down and arrested. The case was called in the Mayor's Court this morning and sent on for trial at the next ferm of the Hustings Court.

FOR NEW BUILDINGS.

The special board of directors of the Central State Hospital held an adjourned meeting at that institution to-day, when contracts were awarded for the four new buildings—a ward for female patients, an industrial shop, a building for employes, and a chapel. All members of the board were present—Colonel L. W. Lane, Jr., of Williamsburg, State Commissioner of Hospitals, chairman; Messrs, Robert Gilliam, of Petersburg; Julius Grand, of Richmond, and O. D. Bachelor, of Newport News.

The contracts were swarded as follows:

Robert Gilliam, of Petersburg; Julius Straus, of Richmond, and O. D. Bachelor, of Newport News.

The contracts were awarded as follows: Building for colored employes, $10,984; assembly hall, $44,653, all to G. B. Keeler and Son, of Petersburg; industrial shop, $2,937, J. T. Nuckois, Richmond.

The board appointed as internes Drs. Driver, Augusta county; J. N. Mason. Louisville, Ky., recently graduated from University of Virginia; W. F. Rivercomb, Highland county.

Hon. William E. Cameron, who has been quite ill for some time, has sufficiently recovered to go to Old Point for a few days.

FISHER-GOULD SUIT.

Argument in the Fisher-Gould suit will be resumed on Wednesday morning, when Mr. Ezra Tuttle, of New York, representing the plaintliffs, will speak. The case will probably continue for several days. as after Mr. Tuttle, Messrs. Henry W. Anderson and Frank W. Christian, of Richmond, are to speak for the Goulds, while Mr. Richard B. Davis will close for the plaintiffs.

The following districts have been assigned to the three city physicians: Dr. Siloy. First and Second Wards: Dr. Shipgen, Third and Fourth Wards: Dr. Jones, Filth and Sixth Wards.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUFFOLK, VA., July 11.—On Saturday night, in Jericho, Ya., Grant Bachelor was shot entirely through the body by Dave Freeman. The ball pierced the left lung. Bachelor's condition is critical. Both are colored.

The cause of the shooting is apparently very trivial. Freeman is said to have become incensed at Bachelor because of his laugh, which is singularly loud, discordant and almost hysterical and uncontrollable. Freeman is said to have taken Bachelor's laugh, which was jocular in Intent, as derisive.
